

Heatmap visualization of gene expression data across 100 samples. The color scale ranges from -1 (blue) to 5 (red). A dendrogram at the top shows sample clustering. A color bar at the top right indicates sample groups: G1 (yellow) and G2 (green). The heatmap is divided into two main clusters of samples, with a clear separation between the two groups.